

Every Hero Has a Story.... You Can Write a Story Too

With Kim Kovach

Entering grades 3-6

Thursday July 9, 4:00-5:30

Local author, Kim Kovach, will show students how to:

- ✍ brainstorm ideas
- ✍ explore characters, settings and unusual abilities
- ✍ create a one-of-a-kind story
- ✍ share their story out loud at the end of the workshop

Completed stories will be “published” to keep at the Library

Call to register (914) 234-3570

Kim Kovach is the author of two middle grade/YA books, Welcome to Appletown! and DON'T EAT THAT! as well as two charming children's chapter books, The Adventures of Kitchawan Kenny and Friends and Kitchawan Kenny and the Summer Garden Mysteries. Ms. Kovach has taught writing workshops for children and adults at several local libraries in New York and Connecticut.
