

M&M Math, Melting, and More

Wednesday, March 7th

3:30-4:30

Grades K-2

Ever wonder why M&M's melt in your mouth and not in your hand?

- Explore the properties of this favorite candy with math and (of course) taste testing.
- Science and math can be delicious!

Have fun while learning:

- estimating
- subtracting
- ingredient properties
- color patterns
