

AUTHOR TALK WITH JEAN HANFF KORELITZ

The Bedford Free Library is pleased to present and welcome back for the third time, New York Times best selling author Jean Hanff Korelitz. She will be discussing her new book "The Devil and Webster." Ms. Korelitz's previous bestselling novels include "You Should Have Known," "Admission" and "The White Rose."

"In the strength and conviction with which her defiant student and dedicated college president address the entitlement and acceptance, prejudice and privilege, Korelitz...taps into the current unsettled campus and cultural zeitgeist with eerie precision."
