

Sew Much Fun at the Library

Sewing with Kate Perri

August 22 – 25

10:00—11:30

Entering Grades 4 & up

Registration required—boys welcome

Must attend all sessions

Everything is provided at no charge

Learn the mysteries of the sewing machine

By working on various projects,
you will learn:

- ◇ how to use a sewing machine
- ◇ straight and curved sewing
- ◇ measuring, marking, pinning, cutting
- ◇ the use of sewing tools
- ◇ how to embellish your projects

Call (914) 234-3570 to register.

Participants from 2015

The teacher, Kate Perri, is an author, fiber artist, and accomplished seamstress. She has taught sewing for over 20 years and has published two books on sewing and quilting. She has a BFA in Designer Crafts from The Maryland Institute College of Art.

Bedford Free Library

32 Village Green, Bedford, New York

www.bedfordfreelibrary.org

Prior knowledge of sewing is helpful though not required.

This program is underwritten by Bedford Village Chowder and Marching.