

COFFEE AND CONVERSATION WITH AUTHOR CELIA HIRSCH

Telling: What Remains Hidden Becomes Lethal

Author Celia Hirsch

FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 10AM

In this powerful memoir, Celia Hirsch recounts a traumatic childhood marked by emotional abuse in the shadow of her parents' Holocaust survival, revealing how her relentless drive to uncover the truth helped her heal and thrive. Through raw storytelling and psychological insight, she offers hope to others seeking the courage to confront and overcome their own pasts.

Celia Hirsch, a Westchester resident for over 30 years, has built a dynamic career spanning the art world, entrepreneurship, and wellness, including running a successful gallery in Chappaqua and founding SPACE yoga studio in Katonah. Her latest reinvention adds "author" to her list of accomplishments, with a memoir praised as a "masterpiece of introspection." Beyond her professional successes, she treasures her role as a mother and grandmother most of all.

Registration required. Coffee will be served. Books will be available for purchase and signing.

Bedford Free Library
32 Village Green
Bedford, NY
bedfordfreelibrary.org
914-234-3570

Online registration is required or use QR code.