

AN EVENING AUTHOR TALK WITH KATHLEEN ANNE KENNEY

WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 18TH
7:00PM

Registration required.
Call the library or register online. Space is limited. Light refreshments will be served.

The Bedford Free Library is pleased to welcome Kathleen Anne Kenney for a discussion of her book "Girl on the Leaside." Girl on the Leaside is a coming of age novel, set in the Connemara region of Ireland, filled with references to Celtic poetry and ancient mythology.

"In its hauntingly evocative Irish setting, this is a book suffused with poetry—real poetry. It is a book of awakenings of every kind, and of moving surprises. Like all good stories, as this local tale unfolds it becomes universal."

-Edward Rutherfurd, Author of "Paris" and "The Princes of Ireland"

"Lovers of Irish poetry will find this book a treat."

-Booklist

This is Kathleen's debut novel. She is an author, freelance writer and playwright. Several of her plays have been presented in Minnesota theaters. She is currently working on her second novel based on an earlier play "The Bootleg Blues." Books will be available for purchase and signing.

Bedford Free Library
32 Village Green
Bedford, NY
www.bedfordfreelibrary.org 914234-3570

