

My Mansion by Miles O'Donoghue

My mansion's not a house

My mansion's not a mouse

It's not a bear

It's not a dare

My mansion doesn't have a door

My mansion doesn't have a floor

It was one day when mom was away,

It started with breakfast

It was the best.

It's got sprinkles and whipped cream and ice cream too.

It goes on top of a waffle.

I always want two.

My sister called these a very silly thing.

She liked the name "mansion"

It had a nice ring!
